

PETER STONE BROWN

March 20, 1999

Hi Arnie,

Here is the Lucina Williams stuff for you. These are really her 3rd and 4th albums (she did two for Folkways in the early '80s or late '70s). But these are the two she did for Rough Trade and were eventually reissued on Elektra, though I'm not sure either is available. I'm not sure whether or not you said you had Sweet Old World or not, but there was room on the tape, so I figured what the hell -- you can listen to it in the car or something. Sweet Old World starts with the song "Six Blocks Away" and since the stupid record company didn't list the times for this anywhere, I figured I'd put the first two songs on Side one 'cause I wasn't sure it would fit otherwise.

There's some other stuff here for you as well. :-)

Take care and I hope we can meet sometime soon.